Waste

Within England and Wales the Environment Agency are responsible for ensuring waste produced is disposed of correctly. Harrison Preservation Ltd. are a Registered Carrier of controlled waste with the East Anglian area, Registration No. AEA/793035.

As such Harrison Preservation Ltd are affected by, and strive to conform to, the Control of Pollution Act 1974, the Registration of Carriers and the Seizure of Vehicles Act 1991 and The Environmental Protection (Duty of Care) Regulations 1991.

As a result Harrison Preservation Ltd. has a duty of care to ensure that any waste produced is handled safely and in accordance with the law. The Company are also responsible for ensuring the safe and proper disposal or recovery of waste produced, even after it has been passed on to another party such as a waste contractor, scrap metal merchant, recycler, local council or skip hire company.

The Duty of Care has no time limit and extends until the waste has either been finally and properly disposed of or fully recovered. It places the onus on Harrison Preservation Ltd. to take all reasonable measures to:

- Prevent anyone keeping, depositing, disposing of or recovering Company 'controlled waste' without a waste management licence or an exemption from the need for a licence.
- Ensure that their waste management licence has not been suspended or partially revoked and that they are not in breach of the conditions of that licence or exemption.
- Stop materials escaping from Company control or the control of anyone else by packaging it appropriately and robustly and using bunds on site.
- Ensure that waste is only transferred to an authorised person. Make sure that a person or business is authorised to deal with Harrison Preservation Ltd's particular type of waste.

- Ensure that the waste being transferred is accompanied by a written description that will enable anyone receiving it to dispose of it or handle it in accordance with his or her own Duty of Care. This will be a Waste Transfer Note (WTN) which must be completed and accompany any transfer of waste between different holders.
- The WTN should contain enough information about the waste to enable anyone coming into contact with it to handle it safely and either dispose of it or allow it to be recovered within the law. Failure to give enough information may result in prosecution. The WTN should be annotated, both in words and by reference to the appropriate codes in the European Waste Catalogue (EWC), with both the quantity and types of each different waste being transferred.

Responsibility

Environment legislation places a number of legal duties on people at work. Although this affects everyone the prime responsibility and the application and promotion of the Harrison Preservation Ltd.
